The CELEBRATION of a DECADE
October 21, 6 pm | The Lofts at Union Square

Sustainable Furnishings Council thanks you for support over 10 years of helping furniture companies reduce environmental footprint, and shoppers furnish healthy homes.

Sponsors include:

Find resources and information you need at www.sustainablefurnishings.org
SELLING YOUR ECOSTORY—LIKE A PRO

SUSTAINABLE. TIMELESS. DESIGN.

OCTOBER 22ND, 2016 2 PM

LUXURY INTERIORS, 100 SOUTH LINDSAY ST.

Now more than ever, sustainability is of critical importance to designers, manufacturers, clients and global brands. A panel of industry experts helps us navigate the core tenets of sustainable design, and why it is inherently timeless. Panelists include Susan Inglis, executive director of the SFC; Bondi Coley, marketing director at Lee Industries; Whitney Timley, director of education at Moore & Giles; and Kathryn Richardson, VP of sales at Libeco. Moderated by Erika Heet, Editor-in-Chief of Interiors magazine. Hosted by Lee and Ellet. 1 CEU CEU pending.

THE TOXIC HOT SEAT

MOVIE NIGHT AT CISCO BROTHERS

OCTOBER 25TH, 2016 7 PM

CISCO BROTHERS, 1014 MALL AVENUE

The SFC and Cisco Brothers are proud to announce a special screening of the HBO movie, Toxic Hot Seat, produced by James Redford and Kirby Walker, Toxic Hot Seat tells the story of a growing tide of activists, journalists and citizen groups who are bringing an end to the era of manipulation and misinformation about hidden toxic chemicals. The film shows the struggle to remove toxic flame retardant chemicals from our couches, environment and bodies. These chemicals are linked to lower IQ in children, thyroid disease, infertility, cancer and other rising rates of health problems. They are found in every living being on earth, and Kirby Walker and James Redford talk about how the Toxic Substances Control Act. Come for the movie, stay for the conversation and have some popcorn!